LABEE NEAR THE GALLOWS. | HAPPIEST OF GRADUATES. UNIQUE EXERCISES AT THE NORMAL COL-TO BE HANGED TO-MORROW MORNING FOR

CARVING UP HIS YOUNG WIFE.

He Will Expiate a Crime the News of Which Thrilled All New Jersey-Ilia Victim Was Only Nineteen Years of Age and They Had Been Married but Three Months-The Condemned in Abject Dread.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ! PATERSON, N. J., June 26. - Tunis Labee, who brutally butchered his young wife, is to hang to-morrow at the County Jail here. The gallows was put up this morning in the iall yard and the execution will take place in the morning between 8 and 12 o'clock. The crime for which Labee is to be executed was committed on February 28 last. Labes, who is a Hollander, came to this country with his wife about three months previous and had settled in Paterson about Thanksgiving time. He had married her in Rotterdam just previous to coming to America, and she was said to be one of the prettiest girls in that city. She was nineteen and he was thirty.

She was certainly a very beautiful woman, and it was this fact which made Labee jealous and led to frequent quarrels between them after they had settled down to housekeeping in Paterson. These finally became beeping in Paterson. These finally became so violent that the pair separated, the young wife going to live at the house of a friend, while Labee took board elsewhere.

He could not keep away from his wife, however, and visited her almost every day. In order to avoid him she went to live in the house of Cornelius Stoolemaaker, at No. 10 Chestnut sireet, where her husband's visits were less frequent, and where she could refuse to see him if she so desired.

On the day of the murder Labee went to the house about 1 o'clock in the afternoon and naked for his wife. She consented to see him and they had a long talk in the parlor, which ended in a violent quarrel.

At this noint Labee became crazy with rage, and drawing a long, ugly-looking knife he surang upon the woman with the ferocity of a tiger and drew the sharp edge across her throat.

She screamed loudly, but before any one could come to her assistance Labee had thrown her upon the floor and was stabbing and hacking away as her body with the fury of a flend.

He literally carved her to pieces, and when neighbors ran in she was so disfigured with gashes and cuts as to be hardly recognizable. She was still alive, and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where she died soon after her arrival.

When interrupted in his bloody work Labee jumped up, and, flourishing his knife before the frighened neighbors, ranked out of the door and made his escape.

He was arrested shortly after, and after a speedy trial was convicted of murder in the first degree on May 25, and was sentenced to be hanged by Juage Dickson, of Paterson, After his arrest and conviction Labee conducted himself like a stoic.

He claimed that his wife had attacked him first, but did not deny that he had stabbed ducted himself like a stoic.

He claimed that his wife had attacked him first, but did not deny that he had stabbed her.

He maintained this indifferent demeanor until day before yesterday, when he broke down completely and became nearly crazy. He fall down on his knees and began to how! and pray, and seemed to have the most abject foar of the approaching end.

It was necessary to keep the closest watch upon him for fear that he would kill himself. The prison authorities believe that it will be necessary to carry him to the scaffold.

It is naid that Labee has a wife and several children living in Holland, and that he left tham to come to this country with the woman he murdered. He worked in Paterson as a laborer.

Labos is more nervous to-day than ever before. His spiritual adviser called and prayed with him, but Labos seemed so lost in an agony of fear as not to know what was going on.

Sheriff Cadmus has made all preparations for the execution, and Van Hise, the Newark hangman, is at the jail. It is said the execution will be attended by at least one hundred

JERSEY LIQUOR LICENSES.

It Is Not Necessary to Belong to the L. D.

A. to Get One. A good many saloon-keepers of Jersey City went to the City Hall this morning for their

This is interesting, from the fact that among them were many who do not belong to the Liquor-Dealers' Association.

It was given out and published in the Jersey papers that an agreement had been entered into between the Board of Aldermen and the Liquor-Pealers' Association by which no permits for loonses would be granted to persons outside the Association.

This caused great uncasiness among many

This caused great uneasiness among many saloon-keepers.

Members of the Board of Aldermen at the meeting last night denied that such an agreement had been made, and in issuing permits no discrimination was made against the outsiders. John Hart, the Secretary of the Association, told an Evrayno World reporter this morning that such a deal had never been made. "said he, "was one by which we were to furnish information against percens who do not keep respectable places, in order that permits might be refused.

"The Association is trying to compel all liquor dealers to pay licenses. Grocerymen do more harm than saloon-keepers by selling liquor in bottles, yet they pay no licenses."

Helped His Wife to Fight. Joseph H. Rimmer, of 515 Washington street, was held for trial in the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of assault. His wife was fighting with Mary Hines, a neighbor, last night, whom Himmer took a hand in and tare Mrs. Hines's clothes and beat her terribly about the head.

No More Stewart Will Case. The glosing arguments in the Stewart will contest were adjourned until to-day, in order that resetiations which were pending for a setilement of the sentroversy might be concluded; but they were not made, and it is now practi-cally conceded that the case is settled. Neither surrogale Ransom nor any of the counsel was present to-day.

fords greater insight as to the extent and character of the great conspiracy, and gives a more definite basis upon which the officers may work.

The loss, assuming that the records were destroyed when the Camp was disbanded, may prove greater than the gain, though the latter is not insignificant.

To Edward Spellman, who was before the Grand Jury last week, is attributed the decisive move in the Camp's disbandment.

It is believed that he became alarmed at the direction which the investigation was taking, and that his fears, together with the reports made by the spies who are following every step taken by the prosecution, sufficed to bring about the dissolution of the organization.
